FOOTBALL STINGERS READY FOR QUEEN'S

Last year the Concordia Stingers football season ended November 7th in Kingston, with a 39-11 loss to the Queen's Golden Gaels. This Saturday afternoon (October 23rd) the Stingers will have a chance to avenge that defeat and perhaps eliminate Queen's from post-season play, when they host the Gael's at the Concordia Stadium at 2 p.m..

The Stingers will go into the game missing All-Canadian wide-receiver, Gerry Prud'homme and defensive back, Phil Macaulay. Prud'homme is gone for the season with a broken arm, while Macaulay recently underwent surgery to repair a torn knee ligament.

Stinger coach, Skip Rochette will again be looking to high-powered offense to lead the way against the Gaels. Quarterback Colin Anderson heads the attack that includes wide-receiver Jacques Plourde, slot-back Walter Dalla Riva and running backs Mark Simpson, John McArthur and Frank Pileggi.

Concordia and Queen's have met eight times over the last seven years with Queen's holding a 6-2 series lead.

HOCKEY STINGERS HOST TWO

The Concordia Stingers hockey team will be home this weekend for a pair of games sandwiched around the football game. On Friday evening (October 22nd) Paul Arsenault's Stingers will host Trois-Rivieres, and Sunday evening the McGill Redmen will drop in for their second visit of the young season. Concordia edged the Redmen 4-3 earlier this year in a real nail-biter, setting the stage for this, the second of six meetings between the two clubs this season. Both weekend games begin at 7:30 p.m.

SOCCER ACTION

In men's soccer, Concordia travels to Trois-Rivieres Saturday afternoon (October 23rd) to play the Patriotes. The Stingers return home the next day to host the Bishop's Gaiters at 2 p.m..

The Lady Stingers will be hosting their Concordia Invitational Tournament on Saturday and Sunday with games being played at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m. each day. On Saturday the Concordia girls take on the McGill Martlets at 9 a.m., while the Queen's team follows playing Champlain College at 11 a.m.. The Consolation game is at 9 a.m. on Sunday, with the Championship game following at 11 a.m.
